POWAI FINE ARTS (PFA) is the brainchild of few individuals of Powai, who appreciate the value of Indian fine arts and are keen to preserve the culture of India. This Non Profit Organisation promotes all Indian art forms primarily Classical music and dance by providing a platform for the artistes to exhibit their excellence. PFA also organises workshops, Lec/Dems to build awareness and spread the nuance of various Indian art forms among the residents of Powai. PFA presents performances of eminent artistes who have made their mark in their respective field of Classical Music and dance forms to the residents of Powai. It aims to explore more opportunities to organise valuable programs from professionals living in and around Powal. It also offers a platform for budding talents as well.

PFA has staged concerts of Camatic stalwarts like Shri. T. V. Sankaranarayanan, Ranjini & Gayathri, Dr. Sowmya, Sikkil Gurucharan, Trichur Bros and Hindustani Vocal by Pt.Ajay Pohankar, Instrumental music such as Santoor by Pt.Satish Vyas, Tabla by Anuradha Pal, Violin by Sriram Prashuram and a variety of dance forms of India like Bharatnatyam, Andhranatyam, Kathak, Mohiniattam, Contemporary Dance etc. Thyagaraja Aradhana and Film Music concerts is always a special feature of PFA. The main goal of PFA has always been to encourage talent, nurture and present them to future generations. Vocal, Instrumental, Dance and Film Music programs are conducted throughout the year and these are always well attended and well supported by its members.

PFA invites life membership from musically interested individuals to be a part of this glorious PFA family, serve music and live life with 'Sur' and 'Taal'.
